Hi Stevo!

How are things in Australia?!! I hope school in August wasn't too bad ;-)) I had a great summer holiday. We stopped school on 25th July and then we went to London for 2 weeks. I love London because it's really an amazing place: there are a lot of historical monuments, museums, parks, thousands of shops and, of course, football and rugby teams. We visited so many different places. We saw the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace, we visited the Houses of Parliament and I heard Big Ben. We had a fantastic view from the London Eye. Tom and Katie, my cousins, are Arsenal fans so we went to the Emirates Stadium, brilliant!

We also saw old paintings at the National Gallery and I was impressed by the dinosaurs at the Natural History Museum. But my favourite place is the Tower of London. It's nearly one thousand years old!! Can you imagine that?

And of course we spent a lot of time shopping in Oxford Street. Selfridge's is absolutely fabulous!! I've got plenty of souvenirs for my family and for you but ssh, it's a surprise. Now we are packing up because... we're going to the USA next week!!

Take care

Jack
