

ReadingCheers from London! A2→B1

Dear Ruth,

I'm having a wonderful time here in London. It is much bigger than Leeds!

I arrived 2 days ago. The trip was ok and the hotel is quite comfortable.

Yesterday I visited Madame Tussauds. That was interesting! Guess who I met there? Our art teacher!!! She is spending the weekend here.

I think today we're going to go shopping. I would like to go to Oxford Street but I have to pay attention because everything is more expensive in that part of London!

Tonight we're going to the Royal Albert Hall near Westminster Bridge for a concert but I don't know what kind of music it's going to be! I must write an article on my friends' musical tastes and a report on the concert. I hope it's not classical music or jazz!

Anyway I promise I'll take lots of photos and tell you all about London when I get back.

Take care.

See you next week!
Rachel xxx

